REGISTRATION NOTICE : MONSOON 2020

The registration process and filling the folios for Monsoon semester - 2020 for all programmes will commence from 01st August 2020. The semester registration link provided on the University website (www.cug.ac.in) will be active till 15th August 2020 only.

All the intermediate semester students are requested to contact their respective centres/ schools and fill the exact course details like course title, course code & credit being offered in the Monsoon semester 2020. According to CUG ordinance every student, on completion of the previous semester, must register to the subsequent semester to remain on the university roll, attend the classes and appear in the examinations. Unregistered student may not be allowed to attend classes or appear in sessional exams until they complete the registration process.

The login i.d. is email provided by you in the application form and password is your date of birth in DDMMYYYY format.

Please note that this year you do not need to print the pdf copy of the folio, just completely fill the form and submit it online. After your submission, the system will send message to the respective Chairperson/Dean that you have completed the registration, who will then verify and approve the same. After their approval, the folio form will be automatically submitted to COE office. After the verification and approval by Chairperson/Dean, the students/Deans office/Chairperson can download the registration folio from their respective panel/ID and they can print or save the same for their reference. This facility has been provided to all the students so that they can complete the registration process sitting at home. The fee submission is also completely online to facilitate the registration process.

Kindly fill the folio form online and submit the semester registration fee before the last date.
