Report of the Programme
Celebration of Birth Anniversary of Subhas Chandra Bose
(23 January 2018)

Subhas Chandra Bose Jayanti was celebrated by NSS-CUG on 23 January 2018, in the Diaspora Studies Lecture Hall of the University. Professor Alok Gupta, Coordinator, NSS CUG, was chief guest of the event. More than 50 volunteers and some faculty members, joined this programme. Mr. Nirav Patel initiated the programme and invited everyone to sing theme song of NSS in chorus. On the call of NSS coordinator some girl volunteers came forward for lightning of the lamp to mark formal beginning of the event. Thereafter, Professor Alok Gupta, Dr. Rajneesh K. Gupta along with other faculties and volunteers paid floral tribute to Subhas Chandra Bose. In his speech, Professor Alok Gupta highlighted contributions of Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose to the nation and urged young generation to learn lessons from his life. Two research scholars, Mr. Amit Kumar Tiwari and Anshul Gautam spoke the contribution of Subhas Chandra Bose in Indian freedom struggle. Dr Rajneesh K. Gupta, Programme Officer gave detailed lecture on Subhas Chandra Bose. Dr. Gupta explained about Bose's view on nationalism and secularism and stated that though there were some ideological differences between Gandhiji and Bose but cause of the nation was supreme for them. According to Dr. Gupta, Bose drawn lots of inspiration from Gandhiji and in fact in the first address to nation through Radio of INA it was Bose who called him 'father of nation'. Mr. Gajendra gave vote of thanks and the programme ended with national anthem.
