

Central University of Gujarat
Intake/Seats for Foreign Students
Academic Year: 2020-21.

The Central University of Gujarat was established by the Government of India in 2009 by an Act of Parliament (No. 25), along with 12 other central Universities in the country. There are no colleges under the Central University of Gujarat. All the courses are offered under different departments (Schools) in the course offered by that respective department (List of courses given below). The International student's application will be assessed by a committee constituted for that purpose and after ensuring the eligibility, the Admissions to foreign nationals will be offered by the Controller of Examination office of the university.

Presently, Central University of Gujarat admits students who are ICCR fellowship holders.
