Item 11 – Evaluation of Sessional and End Semester exams for intermediate students of M.A. and M.Phil. at Centre for International Politics, School of International Studies

13. For M.Phil. course work and M.A. in Politics and International Relations, the University has adopted the following evaluation pattern. The same has been circulated by the COE office vide its circular dt. 22.07.2020. The CoE office circular states:

“On account of the differences in course patterns and credit distribution for research programmes like M.Phil./Ph.D., which consist of theory, write-ups (term paper, project proposals etc.) and presentations (seminars), taking 50% marks from previous semester as per above formula made for the UG/PG programmes may not be rational. Alternatively, the evaluation mechanisms for research programmes across all the Centres/ Schools of the University should be based upon the sessional evaluation (done already) and the assignments/presentation for End-semester component of the current (winter 2020) semester.”

14. The CASR noted that the Centre for International Politics had already submitted the Sessional marks and will be submitting the marks for the end-semester marks (using assignments etc) shortly before the July 31, 2020 deadline given by the University CoE office.

17. The CASR decided to organise online presentation by 2014-15 batch of Ph.D. students between August 20-21, 2020. The members unanimously decided that given that these students have their submission deadline in December 2020, substantive chapters must be presented by the students before all faculty members.
